

French Cinema and the Crises of Globalization

Guest Editors:

Nathalie Rachlin & Rosemarie Scullion

TABLE OF CONTENTS

Introduction:

From Engagé to Indigné: French Cinema and the Crises of Globalization

Nathalie Rachlin & Rosemarie Scullion 3

Olivier Masset-Depasse's Illégal:

How to Narrate Silence and Horror

Mireille Rosello 13

Hope and Indignation in Fortress Europe:
Immigration and Neoliberal Globalization
in Contemporary French Cinema

Will Higbee 26

The Last Working Class City in France:

Denis Gheerbrant's La république Marseille
and Post-Global Cinema

Nathalie Rachlin 44

Lessons for the Neoliberal Age:

Cinema and Social Solidarity
from Jean Renoir to the Dardennes

Rosemarie Scullion 63

Reading Films by Laurent Cantet and the Dardennes Through the Lens of Debt

Martin O'Shaughnessy 82

Claire Denis and the World Cinema of Refusal Rosalind Galt	96
Responding to Globalization: The Evolution of Agnès Varda Kelley Conway	109
Interpreting Intouchables : Competing Transnationalisms in Contemporary French Cinema Charlie Michael	123
Slon/Iskra's Documentaries of Displacement Martine Guyot-Bender	138
Plus The Linguistic Return: Deconstruction as Textual Messianism Anthony Reynolds	152
Mannerism, Baroque, and Modernism: Deleuze and the Essence of Art Sjoerd van Tuinen	166
Reviews Sedgwick, Eve Kosofsky. The Weather in Proust Reviewed by Kevin Kopelson	191
CONTRIBUTORS	198

Full Text: Project Muse
UW Press